My dear miss Weston.

Wm Lindsay leaves early in the morning for Boston once I cannot let so good an opportunity pass without telling you how much I enjoyed my visit in Boston, only that it was not help long enough, & how much I depend on your visit here do not disappoint us. Mr L- will tell you all the news. do not fail to write me by his return if it is only one line. and now dear Deborah do excuse this hasty note, if I had known it in season you should have had a long letter.

Mrs L desires much love Mr Lord also wishes to be remembered — remember me to your sister and believe me with much love

Truly Yours

J H Evans
